

Pembroke College
Junior Parlour Committee
8 February, 2006
8 am

Absent: Dominic (dancing last night at Cindy's, eh?), Emma (at "the Van," eh?).

Only slightly late: Jo.

Slightly later: Vicky.

- I. Food, Bar.
 - a. Bar Issues.
 - i. Most people sound positive.
 - ii. Mr. Basky was concerned about the issue of a television in the JP.
 - iii. The college is primarily concerned that the JPC is united behind a design plan.
 - iv. Bar Crawl on Sunday at 7.30.
 - b. Foreign students are in for Halfway Hall!
 - i. Paul is well pleased.
 - ii. ACTION POINT: EMILY, can you give Rachel a list of full-year int'l students who should be included in Halfway Hall.
- II. Ents.
 - a. Disco lights need to be bought.
 - b. The Bar will be open on Friday.
- III. Why don't we have an anti-racism officer!?!
 - a. Because we already have an active Equal-Ops program.
 - b. The CUSU anti-racism officer also works with us.
 - c. There is a student concerned with the lack of healthy multi-racial exchange.
 - d. Perhaps, we need to address the issue of lacking cultural exchange rather than create a new position.
- IV. JP v GP.
 - a. ConCom was constructive.
 - b. GP is happy to involve undergrads in DVD nights.
 - c. The two committees will be swapping minutes (on that note, Hello Grads!).
 - d. GP would like to invite the JPC to a B.A. Dinner.
 - e. ACTION POINT: EVERYONE, talk to your counterpart on the GPC.
- V. Further feedback from ConCom.
 - a. Simon raises concerns about the taxi voucher scheme.
 - b. Conscientious people may not use it, for fear of stealing from college.
 - c. The thing that's been forgotten in this plan: what if the taxi drivers are crazy and attack students?
- VI. Jo's Shadowing Scheme.

- a. It starts tomorrow.
 - b. Jo will meet with CUSU's access officer tomorrow.
 - i. He's a useless liar.
 - ii. His useless lies will be brought up at Council.
 - c. Jo is a winner, but she's tired, so buy her a coffee (or a Red Bull) and thank her for her hard work.
 - d. TREES is a fascist.
- VII. Any other business.
- a. Vicky is curious about CUSU animosity ("Who in CUSU hates who?").
 - i. Though Council is charged, people are moving forward.
 - ii. People are trying to move on.
 - iii. The Shadowing Scheme was a unifying goal.
 - b. TREES is curious about working with Ghana – if that offer can be publicized by DOMINIC.
 - c. Maryam had questions about posters.
- VIII. Next Meeting Time and Date.
- a. We're going to try Thursday at 1.10.
 - b. Location will be announced.
