

Pembroke College
Junior Parlour Committee
16 February, 2006

Apologies: Dominic Wells, Rachel Miller, Jo O'Donnell, and Vicki Bradley (we love her)

Late: Paul Swanson, Chris Hurn

Inexcusably Absent: EMMA KERR!

Present: Julia Rennie, T. "homas" REES, Simon Spiro, Beth Holford, Lizzie Sharples, Susie Vernon.

- I. Presidential Stuff.
  - a. Report from the Access and Costs Meeting.
    - i. There was a tasty lunch.
    - ii. 75 ladies, 55 men have been admitted for next year.
    - iii. College will help fund the alternative prospectus printing.
    - iv. Rents will go up this year in accordance with inflation; after this year, we'll see.
  - b. JP door lock is fixed.
  - c. Lockers and Storage space around college.
  - d. Bike racks could be redone rather than getting a bunch of crazy double-decker; we'll have the big "n" shaped locks.
  - e. Taxi Times: is 1.30 too late?
    - i. Some say yes.
    - ii. Others say no.
    - iii. The Porters go to bed before 1.00; shouldn't porters get to sleep even if we're too drunk/dumb to get ourselves back from Cindy's at a decent hour?
  - f. Elections! are coming.
  - g. Dominic still thinks that there's a lot of work that needs to get done on the website.
    - i. Can we set up a committee?
    - ii. Didn't work in the past, but might work this time....
  - h. CUSU affiliation.
    - i. Colleges are dropping out (or trying to).
    - ii. What are we going to do?
    - iii. Do I care...?
    - iv. Lizzie makes the point that any disaffiliation motions should come from students. [a good point]
  - i. BA Dinner.
    - i. The grads have generously invited the JPC to join them for a BA dinner on 9 March.
    - ii. We'll be there with bells on.

- iii. 5 quid to any undergrad who gets a kiss from Kit Gulliver!
- II. CUSU issues.
  - a. Free bus services are disappearing.
  - b. Self-defense money is being offered to by the police to each college.
- III. Food and Bar.
  - a. The JP re-opening was a success.
  - b. Plans for redecoration with Blencowe/Adams is going well.
  - c. Can we open windows in the evenings to deal with humidity?
- IV. Ents: Emma's gone!
- V. Chris of the cash.
  - a. Read Chris's report on the budget.
  - b. We've got over £4,000 pounds in the Treasury.
  - c. Scudamores has given us an offer: JPC/GPC pay £135 which will get Pembrokians rates of £7 per hour on weekdays and £9 for weekend hours.
  - d. Will look into approving the budget.
- VI. Access.
  - a. Shadowing scheme is almost completed (well done, Jo!).
  - b. Use of NCR was on the agenda, but frankly I couldn't type quickly enough to get the point written down. I assume it was something like let Paul use the NCR as his new bedroom.
- VII. Publications.
  - a. Funding Pembroke Street.
    - i. We're looking to have a little corporate sponsorship.
    - ii. That would allow us to fund for the full year rather than issue by issue.
  - b. Would it be okay to ask for a little extra £££ in order to do a dinner for the contributors?
    - i. Do it, Beth!
    - ii. Good.
  - c. Paul muttering.
- VIII. AOB.
  - a. The girl who was concerned about equal opps (see minutes from 8 Feb meeting) did not come to the committee meeting.
    - i. However, she is still concerned, and looks forward to working with the new subcommittee.
    - ii. Good.
  - b. Lorries on Tennis Court Road.
    - i. Get them to turn their engines off.
    - ii. The college is trying to work through back channels (perhaps some of the Master's 'old friends' could offer 'assistance').
- IX. Next Meeting.
  - a. Lunches don't seem to work.
  - b. Tuesday, 8am. Be there or Paul will use his powers of vice against you.
  - c. Good.
