2 Bop & Easter Egg Hunt

Freya informed the committee that there is an Easter Egg Hunt on the Friday 13th starting at the bowling green, and suggested we spread the word. She reminded the committee that for the upcoming bop committee members should come at 7.30 in costume to set up. She stressed the importance of checking tickets, not getting too drunk and ensuring that very drunk people have a friend take them home. Philippa suggested something be done about Rugby players skipping paying. The captain (George Towers) had been spoken. Louise added that he was somewhat responsible for last bop, and said his agreement to help is very good.

3 Damage to the JP

Zami showed the committee the broken items (two pool queues, a hat-stand) and explained she and others cleared up the room. She said it is necessary to clean the room before the next weekday, as otherwise the bedders complain. It was agreed that those who caused damage should pay; especially as one of the queues belonged to Felix. Zami will ask Rugby team. Alex added he can arrange to have costs put on somebodies bill. Having the company that owns the pool table cover the cost of the queues was discussed and rejected as it was not accidental damage.

4 Report on CUSU Elections

David reported on the CUSU elections: Pembroke had a reasonable turnout; there was a slight problem in that women were not crossed off from the second electoral role. Andrew suggested running JPC elections at the same time as CUSU elections to improve voter turnout. worries were expressed that this would detriment the JPC elections.

5 Any Other Business

Laura pointed out we now have an access rep for every subject, and that 50 people went for tours last week. The next tour is midday thursday. Rona explained that last year the Senior Tutor paid for exam term yoga sessions, she is currently organising it for this year and hopes to expand it. She cannot choose dates for film nights until the Yoga is sorted. She is sorting massage nights also, however response from massage related societies is slow, and Becky Coombs has taken issue with it. Zami reminded members of the JPC handover dinner on the 9th. It was agreed also that the committee would meet on tuesday before the masters' drinks in the JP. The dress code is smart-casual. Louise requested that people find a time they can get their photos taken by her.
