

Minutes of the Open Meeting

Sunday 11th October, 5.00pm in the JP

David Newgas <dn271@cam.ac.uk>

1 Freshers' Oscars

Freya Perry presented prizes to the people in table 1 for winning freshers' Oscars.

2 JPC Introductions

Zami introduced Laura McCoy and Alex Kaitcer, who were not available during the 'Meet the JPC' event. Alex explained that as treasurer he allocates some college money, and that students wishing to start societies should apply to him for funding. Laura explained that as Access Officer she presents Pembroke as an option to school students, organising tours, the access bus and the weekly email. She invites students to reply to the email, and that no other commitment is required.

3 Events

Andy indicated LGBT drinks on Tuesday (13th) are a good way to introduce oneself to the scene, and that details are on a poster.

Zami pointed out the International's dinner on Tuesday, organised by Annasilvia.

Laura added there is an access squash at St Catz.

Freya added she is selling tickets for Fez tickets for Monday's caveman themed night, jointly with Kings and Trinity.

4 Open Meetings

Zami explained the purpose of the twice termly open meetings, and invited students to raise issues. As no issues were raised, she told students to look towards the second open meeting, where constitutional change may be raised.

5 Any Other Business

No other business was raised.

Here ends the meeting.

| Award | Person(s) |
|----------------------------------|---|
| Cutest couple on the pub crawl | Jan Senge and Judith Wilikala |
| Most destroyed liver | Olly Budd |
| Most enthusiastic fresher | Kat Sudaby |
| Best dressed fresher at the bop | Christian Harrington |
| Most outrageous dancer | Suzie Stott |
| Most likely to get viles disease | Mainah Lee, Cassie Tickell-Painter, Nichole Hui |
| Smiliest fresher | Joey |

Table 1: Freshers' Oscars