

Minutes

Sunday 29 November, 4.15 pm in the JP

David Newgas <dn271@cam.ac.uk>

1 Apologies and Minutes

Apologies: R. Anderson-Witty

In Attendance: D. Newgas, B. Mukherjee, H. Story, L. McKoy, A. Sciortino, C. Muhuza, M. Peacock, S. Donkin, O. Jones.

2 Matters for report

Sophie will be running a talk for freshers on the Ballot process in the next week.

On Monday, 7.00–8.30 and Tuesday, 2.00–3.30 Laura will be doing CRB checks for students on the shadowing scheme; medics who already have CRB will need to show an enhanced CRB check to her.

Anna reported an ints event last Monday attended by 23 Pembroke and 2 from Girton. Left-overs will be reused.

Claude reported future JPC meetings will be at 7.00 in N7, which is booked every week 7.00–9.00. He also reported the broken vending machine in the TV room is to be removed.

3 Refreshers' week

Claude would like to have a “Refreshers' Week”, a program of events in the 1st week of Lent for all undergrads, including non-alcoholic events. The committee hashed out a provisional timetable:

Day	Event
Sat 9th January
Sun	Pub Quiz
Mon	Games / Fez Night
Tue	Cindy's
Wed	Welfare Winter Warmer
Thu	Themed Formal
Fri	Poker Night
Sat	Bop

4 Cumbria Flood victims fund

Claude received a request for a collection towards flood victims. Concern was expressed that the JPC charity should not be neglected. It was agreed that some JPC members will take it up as a separate project. Sophie will talk to Dawn about putting a donations box in the café, and to rag about getting a box.

5 JP Office

Claude wants to get the JPC office more used. Becky agreed to get a new computer. The committee agreed to clean it out on the 10th January.

6 Bop

Claude expressed concern about people not paying for the Bop. Michael said he is having people on all entrances, and that people on the cloakroom must check stamps/tickets. He went on to add that PAPS will not decorate. Poundland was suggested as a cheap source of decoration materials.

7 Cleanup kit location

Oliver suggested getting sawdust for the kit. Consensus was that it is unnecessary and could be abused. It was agreed to store it in the TV room. David will tell Derek about it, and ask the senior tutor to inform event organisers about it.

8 Any other business

Claude had a request for left over food at the end of term to be collected and donated to shelters. It was agreed that Oliver would find a suitable charity, then David would email the list detailing a collection on the TV room.

Here ends the meeting.
